

K-Love is my favorite radio station. It provides positive and uplifting programs and music. It encourages kindness and sharing. These attitudes are essential for good communities to continue to exist. Violence is overwhelming our society and the programming on many radio stations is promoting it. Particularly violence against women and authority figures.